COMMITTEE ON RELATIONS OF THE LIBRARY TO THE MUNICIPALITY

The report of the committee on the relations of the public library to the municipality, presented at the Kaaterskill meeting of the American Library Association Council, has been reprinted in pamphlet form and will be supplied free in reasonable numbers to any librarian or library board where it may be of service. Its use is particularly recommended in cities where the city charter is undergoing revision, or the form of government is changing, or where for these or any other reasons the official position of the library is uncertain or its appropriation insecure.

ENDOWMENT FUND TRUSTEES

At a meeting of the Endowment Fund Trustees, held at the New York Public Library on Monday, November 3d, Messrs. Kimball, Sheldon and Appleton were present. Mr. William C. Kimball was elected president for the Endowment Fund and Mr. Appleton secretary and treasurer.

AFFILIATION OF STATE ASSOCIATIONS

The following state library associations have officially affiliated themselves with the American Library Association according to the provisions of the constitutional amendment and by-law adopted at the Kaaterskill conference: Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, New York, Kansas, Nebraska and Minnesota. These associations are now entitled to be represented in the A. L. A. Council either by their respective presidents or by an alternate elected at the annual meeting.
